Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®)

I am certified for financial planning services in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”). Therefore, I may refer to myself as a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional or a CFP® professional, and I may use these and CFP Board’s other certification marks (the “CFP Board Certification Marks”). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.CFP.net.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

None.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

A. Registered Representative of LPL Financial: Mr. Templeton is a registered representative of LPL Financial, an SEC registered and FINRA member broker-dealer. Clients may choose to engage Mr. Templeton in his individual capacity as a registered representative of LPL Financial, to implement investment recommendations on a commission basis.

1. Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Templeton that a client purchase a securities commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions may provide an incentive to recommend investment products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any commission products from Mr. Templeton. Clients are reminded that they may purchase investment products recommended by Mr. Templeton through other, non-affiliated broker dealers.

Good Life's Chief Compliance Officer, Conor Delaney, is available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

2. Commissions: In the event the client chooses to purchase investment products through LPL Financial, brokerage commissions will be charged by LPL Financial to effect securities transactions, a portion of which commissions shall be paid by LPL Financial to Mr. Templeton. The brokerage commissions charged by LPL Financial may be higher or lower than those charged by other broker-dealers. In addition, LPL Financial, as well as Mr. Templeton, relative to commission mutual fund purchases, may also receive additional ongoing 12b-1 trailing commission compensation directly from the mutual fund company during the period that the client maintains the mutual fund investment. The securities commission business conducted by Mr. Templeton is separate and apart from Registrant's investment management services discussed in Good Life's Brochure.

B. Licensed Insurance Agent: Mr. Templeton, in his individual capacity, is a licensed insurance agent, and can recommend the purchase of certain insurance-related products on a commission basis. Clients can engage Mr. Templeton to purchase insurance products on a commission basis.

1. Conflict of Interest: The recommendation by Mr. Templeton that a client purchase an insurance commission product presents a conflict of interest, as the receipt of commissions provides an incentive to recommend insurance products based on commissions to be received, rather than on a particular client's need. No client is under any obligation to purchase any insurance commission products from Mr. Templeton. Clients are reminded that they may purchase insurance products recommended by Mr. Templeton through other, non-affiliated insurance agents.

Good Life’s Chief Compliance Officer, Conor Delaney, is available to address any questions that a client or prospective client may have regarding the above conflict of interest.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Templeton receives compensation for the additional business activities listed in Item 4.

Mr. Templeton may receive compensation from product sponsors such as promotional gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational or training events or marketing or advertising initiatives.

Item 6: Supervision

Good Life provides investment advisory and supervisory services in accordance with its policies and procedures manual. The primary purpose of Good Life’s Rule 206(4)-7 policies and procedures is to comply with the supervision requirements of Section 203(e)(6) of the Investment Advisers Act (“Act”). Good Life’s Chief Compliance Officer, Conor Delaney, is primarily responsible for the implementation of Good Life’s policies and procedures and overseeing the activities of Good Life’s supervised persons. Should an employee, independent contractor, investment adviser representative, or solicitor of Good Life have any questions regarding the applicability/relevance of the Act, the Rules thereunder, any section thereof, or any section of the policies and procedures, he/she should address those questions with the Chief Compliance Officer. Should a client have any questions regarding Good Life’s supervision or compliance practices, please contact Mr. Delaney at (484) 334-2998 or Conor.Delaney@lpl.com.
