Certified Kingdom Advisor® (CKA®)

The Certified Kingdom Advisor® (CKA®) designation is a voluntary professional certification issued by Kingdom Advisors, Inc. It is granted to financial professionals who demonstrate the ability to apply biblical wisdom to financial counsel. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners or investment advisers to hold this designation.

To earn and maintain the CKA® designation, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

- Prerequisite Credential or Experience: Must hold an approved industry designation (such as CFP®, ChFC®, CPA, CFA®, or a JD) or have a minimum of 10 years of full-time financial experience in their discipline.
- Education: Complete the CKA® Educational Course, a university-approved curriculum focusing on biblical stewardship and integration principles.
- Examination: Pass a comprehensive, proctored CKA® certification examination.
- References: Provide two professional references and one pastoral reference confirming the candidate's character and integrity.
- Ethical Standards: Agree to abide by the Kingdom Advisors Code of Ethics and sign a statement of personal stewardship.
- Continuing Education: Complete a minimum of 10 hours of approved continuing education (CE) credits annually to maintain active status.

Item 3 – Disciplinary Information

We must disclose any legal or disciplinary event that would be material to you when evaluating Mr. Templeton. We have no such legal or disciplinary history to report to you.

Item 4 – Other Business Activities

Mr. Templeton is a registered representative of LPL Financial (“LPL”), a full service broker-dealer, member FINRA/SIPC, which compensates him for effecting securities transactions. As a broker-dealer, LPL engages in a broad range of activities normally associated with securities brokerage firms. Pursuant to the investment advice given by Mr. Templeton, investments in securities may be recommended for you. If LPL is selected as the broker-dealer, it may effect transactions in securities for you, a client of GVA and Mr. Templeton. By serving as the broker-dealer, LPL and Mr. Templeton may receive commissions for executing securities transactions. When Mr. Templeton receives commissions in connection with the advice given to advisory clients, GVA may reduce a portion of its fees by the amount of the commissions earned by Mr. Templeton.

You are advised that if LPL is selected as the broker-dealer, the transaction charges may be higher or lower than the charges you may pay if the transactions were executed at other broker-dealers. You should note, however, that you are under no obligation to purchase securities through Mr. Templeton, GVA or LPL.

Mr. Templeton may in his capacity as a registered representative of LPL, or as an agent appointed with various life, disability or other insurance companies, receives commissions, 12(b)-1 fees, trails, or other compensation from the respective product sponsors and/or as a result of effecting securities transactions for you. As previously noted, when commissions or fees are received by Mr. Templeton in connection with the advice given to you, he may, but is not obligated to, reduce its fee proportionate to the amount of the commission or fee earned by him.

Mr. Templeton holds an insurance license to sell limited insurance products. It is anticipated that a small portion, less than (5%) of his time, will be spent providing these insurance products. He may receive compensation from selling insurance products and therefore receive economic benefit for this activity. This activity will create a conflict of interest with clients. However, since this activity represents less than 5% of his time and income, it is presumed not to be substantial.

Item 5 – Additional Compensation

The above business associations do not provide any additional compensation other than as described in GVA’s Form ADV 2A.

Item 6 – Supervision

Mr. Robert Templeton is supervised through a compliance program designed to prevent and detect violations of the federal and state securities laws. Supervision is conducted by the Branch Manager, Kenneth Calcutt, who is responsible for administering the policies and procedures. Mr. Calcutt reviews those policies and procedures annually for their adequacy and the effectiveness of their implementation.
